Church meeting Sunday 27th January, 11:30am. Please join us as we meet to discuss what is happening in our church, during Lent and as we continue to discern where God is leading us with relation to the MAP.

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. This week runs from Sunday 20th - Sunday 27th January. On Sunday 20th January the churches of the group of Covenanting Churches swap those doing readings and intercessions so that there is some cross-over between the churches. The week concludes on Sunday 27th January with a special celebration service to which all are invited. This year the service is at 6pm at the Good Shepherd.

Kids Life in Thailand. All gifts that were sent arrived on time and were added to the bags for each child. In the morning they sat together and prayed, remembering the real meaning of Christmas. They then waited patiently as 70 bags of gifts we laid out. Eventually they all opened their gifts with huge smiles and they were so so grateful. They then had a time of worship followed by a Thai BBQ in the evening! These children are so happy for the love their receive from their sponsors and the generously of those sponsors has been greater then ever this year so on behalf of the staff and children at kids life, thank you to all those that brought a smile, sent a card and a gift and make these amazing children smile this Christmas. God bless you all xxx

Flowers. There will be a retiring collection at the end of the service on January 27th. Also, please sign up on the rota if you wish to arrange or contribute to the cost of our church flowers on any particular day.

The Ones That Got Away. Win Saha has had one hundred books printed containing a collection of her poems, the book is called "The Ones That Got Away". It will cost £5 all of which will be donated to the work of "New Beginnings". Win has paid the printing costs and no profit is made from the sales. These will be available from Sunday

Day Centre. Help required once a month for a few hours during either a Tuesday or Thursday morning. Washing up, laying tables, chatting and having fun as part of a team. If you would like to know more please see either Maureen Worley or Marjorie Harding for more information. Many thanks
